

2012 PRODIGY GROUP MENTORSHIP PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Prodigy Group is pleased to announce the 2012 Prodigy Group Mentorship Program. The Prodigy Group is a committee of the Greater Victoria Chamber of Commerce designed to encourage the growth of our community's emerging leaders. The Prodigy Group offers a unique Mentorship Program that matches emerging leaders with exemplary business professionals that are both committed to the community and are members of the GVCC. This program promotes the professional and personal advancement of Victoria's future leaders and the exchange of new ideas between generations.

Program leads, Joshua Hample and Cory Fry, are coordinating this unique program that will inspire and empower participants to challenge themselves both personally and professionally.

Member Mentorship Program Requirements:

- Must be a Greater Victoria Chamber of Commerce member
- Must commit to meeting with your mentor monthly
- Must have a completed and active LinkedIn profile

Application Process:

1. Prospective Mentees and Mentors, fill out the application form at <http://www.prodigygroup.ca/what-we-do/mentorship>
2. Mentors and mentees will meet with Joshua or Cory separately in advance of any match being made to help ensure their expectations of the program are the same.
3. Mentors and mentees who are matched will set up a convenient time for an introductory coffee with Joshua or Cory to go through the program workbook.
4. Joshua and Cory will communicate frequently to both mentors and mentees informing them of informal mentorship mingles specifically for program members.

Please note we will be accepting applications for both mentees and mentors on a rolling basis throughout 2012. Once we receive an application, our team will work to find you a suitable match in your desired timeframe.

Once you are matched with a mentor/mentee, you will together decide how often you will meet and the projected duration of your relationship. More information and guidance is provided in the Mentorship Workbook that you will receive once a match has been made.
